

DERIS SANK

Dorothy Sulem

Polaris symbolizes for us North High School, the guiding star by which we set our courses for the future. The pole-star appears in the tail of the stellar group popularly known as the Little Dipper or the Little Bear; also in the northern sky shines the Great Dipper or the Great Bear. These constellations, Little Bear and Great Bear, represent respectively the June and January graduating classes. Together they swing in annual circle about the central light.

LIFE ON OUR PLANET AS HEARD IN THE HALLS

"Believe it or not I'm a
"B" senior."

"The election preliminaries begin next."

"Who should I vote for?"

"Co-presidents. That's swell. Every one is satisfied and two heads are better than one."

"What are you doing with all those election signs?"
"I like all the candidates so I'm wearing a sign for each of them."

"Co-presidents Bill and Jerry, secretary Pearl, treasurer Verna, sergeant-at-arms-Kenny and mascot Muriel--watch us go."

"The A-B senior party sure was swell. It was definitely Hawaiian with Palm trees swaying and leis for every one."

"Now for a good long vacation.....Am I going to sleep, ho hum."

"Three months of vacation and I'm still tired."

"The band had a good time in New York. Did you hear them on Major Bowes' program?"

"I had more fun at the "A" senior party. The game room was a life saver for those of us who don't dance and want a good time too."

"Have you seen "Fly Away Home"? I saw it last night and did I laugh. You better go tonight. Last chance."

"Would you--well, gee, would you care to--gosh--the prom is January ninth and I've got a dollar and a half. Well?"

"Boy, what a banquet! Turkey and mashed potatoes and gosh just everything. I could hardly dance afterwards."

"Our last auditorium. Gee, when will I catch up on my sleep now?"

"My diploma in black and white but now that I've got it I wish I could turn it in for three more years."

G. A. A.

The girls who take an interest in many sports are rewarded. One may earn so many points in each sport. Each girl having 600 points, 200 of which must be earned in individual work, receives an N. 1000 points earn a G.A.A. emblem.

Every day after school one may see girls hurrying to the gym to take part in some athletic activity. G.A.A. is different than gym classes as the girls do the supervising. Each member of the board has some sport she must direct.

Irene Chesebro, President, has charge of Badminton, as well as Marlys Webster and Jean Lathrop. Janice Barre and Shirley Goldstein have charge of Speedball; Joyce Powers and Jean Kelly, Volleyball; Marlys De Marais and Jean Olson, Hiking; Joyce Brose, Biking; Rosemary Harding and Shirley Burk, Basketball; Elvy Edin, Secretary, and Marilyn Rieman, Tennis; Joyce Kronstadt, Diamondball; Patricia Griffin, Swimming; Jeanette Lorentzen and Donna Parsons, Skating.

"I like a speedy game in which there are many players. Speedball is just that," says Clara Converse.

This year Speedball replaced Touch-football. Played with a Speedball, it is very similar to the game it replaced and a Soccerball game. A slow person had better stay entirely away from Speedball. This game can be played either indoors or out. There are ten players on each side. After the game has commenced, there is a heated game to see which side can get the ball between their respective goal poles the greater number of times. Hands are absolutely forbidden.

"If one is especially good at guarding, and not at making baskets or vice versa," says Marjorie Hansen, "they may still be good basketball players."

Two teams, consisting of six girls each, are formed. In a game, two girls from each team play in each division. At each of the end divisions, there are two forwards and two guards. Only forwards can attempt to make baskets. The centers play in the center section. A foul is committed if a player steps out of her section. This gives the other side a free throw. A basket gotten by a free throw gives one point; a basket gotten otherwise gives two.

Miss Haveson, known as "Havy", a good friend of everyone.

Miss Haveson is the dance teacher at North. She teaches not only Modern Dance but also Ballroom Dance. There are beginning and advanced classes and a class during the lunch period for those who cannot get Ballroom dance on their program. Those who go to the Sunlites usually take Ballroom Dance so as to enable them to dance some of the newest steps.

Miss Lang. New to North this year, but she is already a favorite teacher.

Miss Lang, new at North High this year, teaches the Table Tennis and Bowling classes. There are three tables for the table tennis game at which four can play at one time. New balls and pins were purchased this year for bowling. Bowling is also played after school. Those that master these two games will be glad they did when they leave school. They will have a much better chance to make a team for bowling.

"I think bowling is one of the most up and coming games in G. A. A.," said Mary Lou Kowalezyh.

Bowling was just started at this school this year and is fast becoming one of the most popular sports. At first there were only rubber balls and pins, but new equipment was purchased.

"There is nothing more invigorating than the winter air while skating," says Lorraine Mustonen.

Everyone skating at North Commons agrees with Lorraine. A girl is stationed at the park to take the names of the girls participating. One must furnish her own skates and skate for an hour.

Skating. Row One: E. Trockman, G. Grey, E. Liss, P. Reeves. Row Two: S. Goldstein, V. Invie, J. Olson.

"I like volleyball because a large number of girls can play at one time," replied Joyce Powers.

In Volleyball the girls form teams and challenge each other. Everyone likes to play it as the poor players get an equal chance to participate. Everyone has a chance to serve as well as play the other positions.

Badminton. Row One: V. Invie, K. Gleason, G. Grey, E. Dehn, E. Cahill, E. Liss. Row Two: R. Ganley, J. Powers, E. Trochman, M. Reeves, D. Rust. Row Three: J. Olson, C. Leader, S. Goldstein, J. Lathrop. Row Four: M. K. lezyh, L. Nanfelt, H. Mason Rieman, P. Carlson. Row Five: C. Burk, J. Barre, M. Webb, J. Taft.

"Badminton is a game that can be enjoyed equally well by experts and poor players if they are teamed proportionally," said Marlys Webster.

Badminton is played after school as well as in some of the daily classes. First one is taught the correct technique of using the racket. Then the players are teamed according to their skill. The rest is up to the player.

Led by Don Johnson, former all-city guard and this year's all-city half-back, the North men displayed fine courage and spirit, but to no avail; defeat overtook them. Despite injury and lack of experience, our Polar-gridders showed the drive and fight of champions.

There's going to be plenty of feuding now that Patrick Henry has entered into the inter-city high school league. The Polars and the Pat Hanks both inhabit the same stamping grounds, both claiming the North Side for themselves. Not only that, a beautiful silver liberty bell is to go to the victor of the annual clash.

Injuries were numerous, Captain Ralph Guzzo and Gordie Doll being some of the victims but the boys kept fighting and led by Johnson, Skinner, and Fischer in the backfield, and Spewak, Verstagen, and Frank Johnson on the line, the Polars did a commendable job.

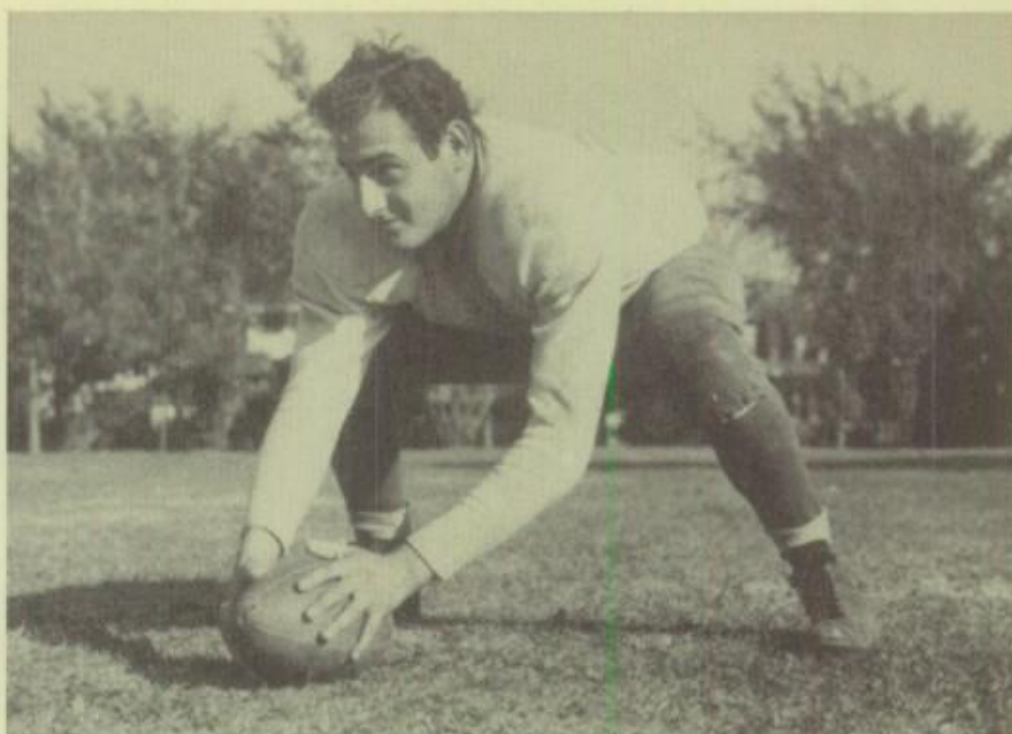

Skinner finds a hole and goes right through.

One of the features that seem to act as a stimulus for keeping the new arrivals at North High contented is the sophomore section of the Athletic Department. The sports included are basketball, and football, the former being coached by Mr. Perrin and the latter by Louie Burnett.

The main purpose of this sports program is to provide a means for the younger boys to participate in the athletic activities and also to prepare the boys for the athletic contest when they become juniors and seniors.

Row One: W. Seemann, M. Martinez, B.Rozman, S. Meyerson, J. Marceau. Row Two: T.Young, D. Peters, H. Janowitz, A. Levitt, K.Appelbaum. Row Three: I.Mogilevsky, L. Day, A. Steigler, J. Frisch.

APPARATUS

When it comes to the point that medals and trophies no longer have any significance to a team or its coach, it can be taken for granted that the aforesaid team is really good. This is the sad case of Mr. Burnett and his apparatus team. In the two major city meets, the team as a whole got a first in the Y.M.C.A. all-city meet, and a second in a less important city contest. Not being satisfied with this meager accomplishment, the Polar Musclemen went on to take the Northwest meet, thus completing a very successful season.

WRESTLING

A new feature in the athletic department is the newly organized wrestling team with "Tom" Kennedy its mentor. As yet the wrestlers have not had time to build up their reputation, but once they get started, much will be expected of them.

SWIMMING

SKATING

The Polar skaters were well represented until midyear graduation. The three remaining members are Frank Johnson, Eph Levine, and David Dachis.

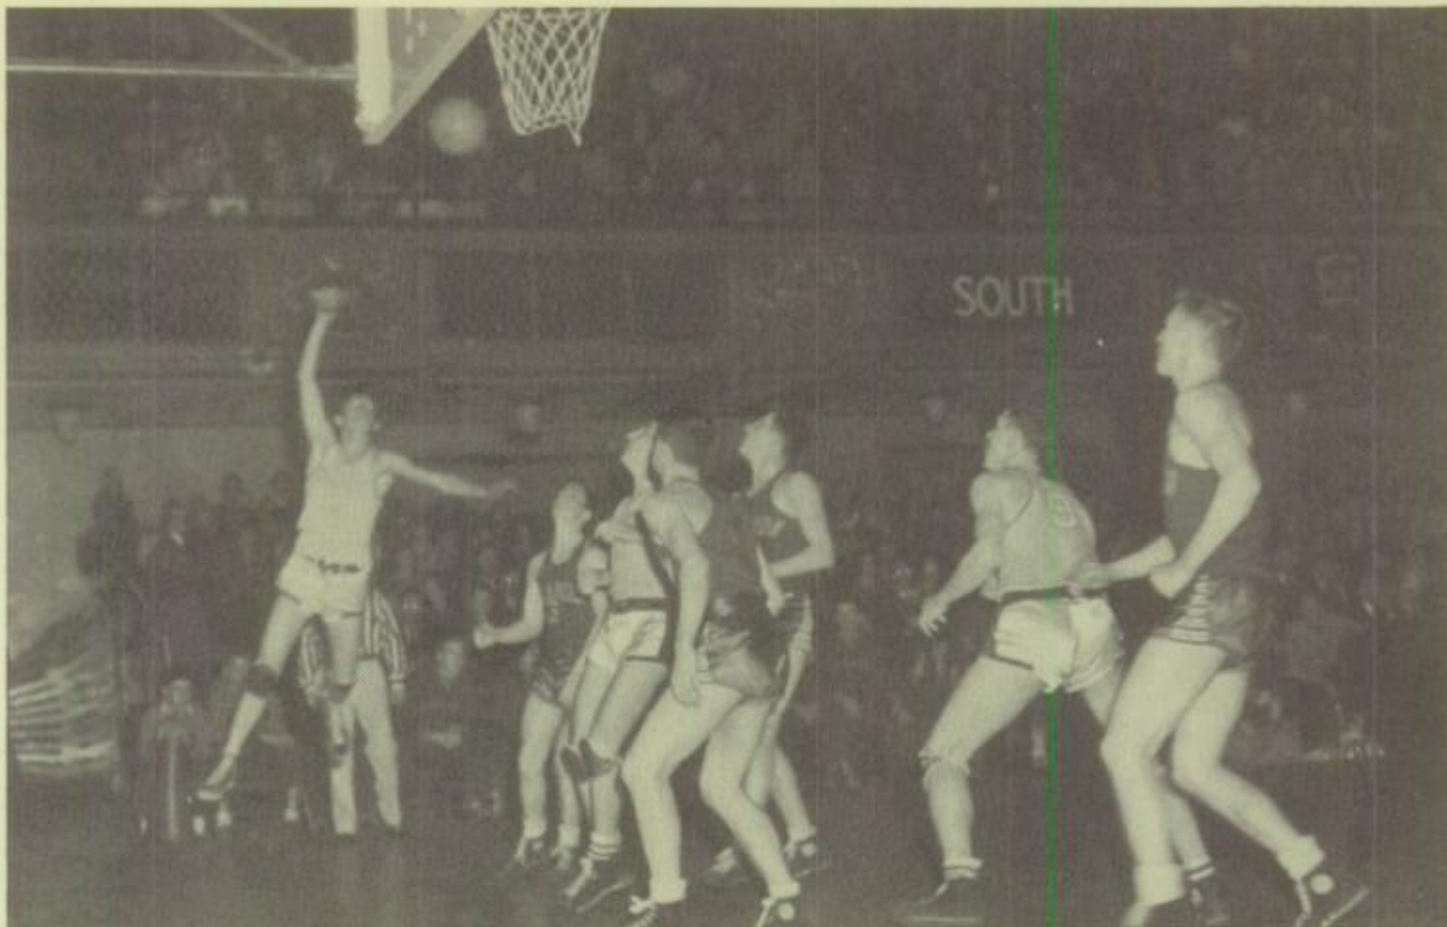

SKIING

Here are some typical action shots that show the fine spirit and action North displayed at the inter-city games. It was this consistent fight and drive that made the Northmen the most popular team on the floor.

Rebound!

It was quite a shock to Polar cagers when mid-season graduation rolled around. For although they lost but one man, that man, Arnold Lehrman, was so important a cog in the North machinery that it took one full game for the Jacobimen to get back to smooth working order and normalcy again. The games preceding graduation were played in a mediocre fashion with the Northmen losing one and winning two. After a startling defeat by Poosevelt, North began to play like an inspired team. Led by the sharp-eyed Goldstien, and the big "Dutch" Schoenecker, the Blue and White bucketeers rambled through the remainder of the schedule, bowing to none but the mighty Marshall, league leader. The North boys are to be especially commended for their fine spirit in the face of very tough opposition. The boys had what it took, and did a good job.

The Polars keep fighting it up.

BASKETBALL

The Polar Pucksters carried their team in remarkable fashion, winning four out of six games. This was an amazing feat for the boys who were playing as a coachless team.

One of the newer features at North is bowling for boys. The North boys seem to be "dead eyes" with the pins. There's no stopping them.

The term "English Department", when applied to the twenty-one English teachers at North High, is inadequate; for though they teach our native tongue, it is only one of the subjects that is taught by them. There are the radio workshop, the speech, drama, and debate classes, and also special courses in business English and creative writing.

Each year the English teachers elect one of their number to lead them in planning the semester's work. This year that chairman is Miss Bertha Thorpe. From her room, 19, Miss Thorpe coordinates the work of the various committees and represents the department in all outside affairs.

Our English department aims not only to help us read, write, and speak correctly, but also to give us a better appreciation of American and English Literature. These ideals are faithfully pursued during the three successive years of a high school student's education.

Today we realize to a greater extent just how important international understanding is. To promote concurrence in thought and action it is essential to understand the languages of our foreign neighbors. We in North High School are given an excellent opportunity to do just that, for six languages are taught here.

We struggle through grammar and vocabularies until we are able to appreciate Victor Hugo's vast picture of early nineteenth century France; the poetry of Goethe, Schiller, and Heine; the plays of Norway's Björnsson and Ibsen; the amusing Swedish story of Nils and his Goose; a year with Caesar and dividing Gaul into three parts; the romance of old Spain and new life in South America.

MATHEMATICS

The Mathematics department is a department of heart breaks, from the time you find out that Mr. Street's wavy hair does not hang down into his eyes, and that the answers in the back of the higher algebra books do not help you any, until after you have taken three years of math, and Mr. Spaulding nonchalantly proves that two and two do not equal four. You usually feel pretty good when you've figured out what a sublinear coordinate is, but then the genius sitting next to you shows up with a new proof for Pythagoras' theorem or something equally gruesome. Yes, my dear students, if you have a weak heart, stay out of the math department.

Good citizenship and the spirit of democracy are two qualities we all should have in order to preserve our way of life. The most important task of the Social Science department is to impart to us these qualities. It is only natural that the study of the social sciences--world history, U.S. history, civics, sociology, and economics--is becoming more important, that four social science credits are now required for graduation.

Every month--every week--great changes are taking place in the world. With a firm foundation of knowledge of history, good government, and modern problems we can do our bit to see that these changes are for the better.

Many parents this past year have asked their children who groped their way home to cold suppers, "Where have you been?" The contented answer has been, "In the gym," the girls playing anything from basketball to ping-pong; the boys earning letters by playing football, basketball, baseball, etc.

SCIENCE

One of the most diversified and interesting courses of study at North is the study of the sciences.

Biology, botany, physics, and chemistry--all afford the student an excellent opportunity to investigate the natural phenomena which occur around us in our daily life.

North High School's science department is among the finest in the city. The physics department alone represents $7500 worth of equipment.

Mr. P.A. Davis, head of the science department says, "To be informed, you must know science."

"Meet me in the library" is a phrase well-known to all students of North High. Yes, the library sees many hard-working students during the course of the year; and, in addition teachers who are doing reference work or----marking report cards! This year the library is more cheerful and roomier due to the new location in 127.

Anita Bredow

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

Domestic science consists of foods, sewing, and design. In sewing, girls learn to make their own clothes and find that it is cheaper to make than to buy them, and that the workmanship is better. In the foods classes methods of preparing and serving food are taught. The art of furnishing and decorating homes is the special province of design.

Yes, we call that art! By the time we have finished one course in art we have had composition, design, and color so thoroughly drilled into us that we are quite sure to know art when we see it. We art students can tell you that surrealism and abstractions are more than mere spots of paint and the reason why. After the first year of fundamental art we branch off into one of the two departments; fine or commercial arts. When we have completed one course in either field, we have a good foundation for going further into the art world.

The band, under the able direction of Mr. J. Clive Cleary, provides a stirring obligato during third hour classes each day. It also entertains us at many assemblies.

The calm and collected (and very handsome, too) young man you see walking down the halls, is our orchestra conductor, Mr. A. N. Nervig, who helps to give us such charming, lilting music.

Mr. Roy T. Tenney, our busy and enthusiastic friend, directs the chorus classes, the choir, and the North High Singers.

Every Thursday Mr. Ranks teaches harmony.

COMMERCIAL

If ever there is a part of North High that actually hums with activity, it's the commercial department. Experience, as they say, is the best teacher, and we commercial students get as much as we can take care of--taking dictation, typing letters and learning all about office machines. We try to make every minute count, so is it any wonder that girls are seen rushing out of a typing room after the last bell has rung, their books and papers flying in all directions? Oh yes, we do have one or two gentlemen in this crowd hardy enough to brave this subject that calls for speed, and more speed!

With all the friendly, capable and understanding teachers in this department, it certainly is not their fault, if we don't know everything about a business routine by the end of the course.

North's clerical staff may also be termed the "brain center," for here attendance records are daily compiled, bulletins are issued, the movements of 2700 students are planned, their credits are recorded, the school finances are checked, outside business is handled, and details of a dozen--perhaps a hundred--small items are cared for.

This efficient group daily manages the school affairs so well we are seldom aware of their difficult job.

JANITORS

We salute the "Forgotten Men" of North High. Yes, too many times when praise is given the school the janitors are entirely forgotten. They keep our building in good condition, keep it clean, and above all, keep it warm.

Probably we all know Mr. Joseph DeMarsh, the chief engineer, but the others are not so well known.

Mr. DeMarsh has been at North for 16 years, and would not trade his job for the world. Here's a thing to remember: about the only thing a janitor really hates is paper and other waste being thrown on the floor.

Next time you hear a word of praise for our school, don't forget to put in a good word for our janitors.

"GO FORWARD"

Kadimah, our Jewish girls organization, actively contributed to Red Cross and the Jewish National fund this year. They also provided Thanksgiving baskets for needy families. The club's other activities included a trip to the University Hospital, a skirt and sweater dance, a formal, and a sleigh ride.

Each year a pin is awarded to the most outstanding member of the club. This fall Beverly Seigle received the pin.

Sara Zemach was president during the fall term, and Rivoli Strauss held the office for the spring term.

NOBLESSE OBLIGE

The National Honor Society presented a "Big Brother and Big Sister" program for the incoming sophomores last January. This organization successfully undertook many projects this past year. An effort was made to improve the school's scholarship by enlarging the tutoring clinic, compiling two honor rolls, and sending congratulating letters to the parents and the publishing of the names of all students who raised two or more marks. They also made a chart to show the scholarship status of the home rooms. 327B was decorated and converted into a National Honor Society room. During the day it was successfully managed as a self-governing study hall. Monitors were elected every six weeks by the students. They were in full charge, since no teacher was present. This was a big step toward student government in North

"REACHING FOR THE BEST"

Blue Tri is the senior branch of the Y.W.C.A. at North. The club meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month and at these meetings there is usually a speaker. This was a busy year for Blue Tri. They had a "County Fair" party at Lyman Lodge, a Christmas party with Hy-Y and Silver Tri, and the Priscilla Prom, "an all-city Girl Reserve informal dance at the Radisson Hotel.

The profits of the latter went to the "Y" Refugee Fund in New York City. In January, the Girl Reserves held their annual Winter Ice Carnival.

The officers for the fall term were: June Ingalls, president; Doris Nelson, treasurer; Mabeth Hollerud, vice president. The officers for the spring term were: Grace Larson, president; Betty Lou Roemer, secretary; Ruth Kosfield, treasurer; Lois Larson, vice president.

"TO EXTEND AND MAINTAIN..."

The Hi-Y, North's organization for building Christian youth, meets weekly in separate chapters (Primus, Zenith, Forem, Acmy, Reps, Maxim). Monthly they join in a school-wide meeting, and three times a year they gather with Patrick Henry and Robinsdale. Thanksgiving and Lenten services and a Christmas party are held with the Girl Reserves.

The Hi-Y arranges basketball and diamondball tournaments and the members assist in the Y.M.C.A.'s financial campaign. Individually each chapter conducts its own social functions.

The officers of the group are Clayton Johnson, president not only of North High's chapter, but also of the City-wide chapter. Vice president in the fall was Walter Nyberg and in the spring, Charles Peterson. The Secretary-treasurer is Owen Duke-low. Each chapter has its own president. "READY FOR SERVICE"

This year Silver Tri has had "Cookie Jar" meetings every other Tuesday. At the meetings they made a friendship quilt. Each girl embroidered her name on a square and the squares were then sewn together and stuffed. At their Recognition Service they had a "Pot Luck" supper. They have had many activities which included a formal dance, a rollerskating party, a weiner roast, a toboggan party, and a joint Christmas party with Hi-Y and Blue Tri. The officers for the fall term were: Irene Olson, president; Shirley Lee, vice president; Shirley Larson, secretary; Betty Westerlund, treasurer. The officers for the spring term were: Betty Westerlund, president; Marilyn Shannon, vice president; Elaine Hay, treasurer; Patricia Hanson, secretary.

GUILD GIRLS

Seton H1 is sponsored by the Seton Guild, a Catholic organization, but it is open to all girls. The club has had various speakers and a travel movie at one of its meetings. At Christmas they celebrated with a party and had a sunlite for Valentine's day.

The officers for the fall and spring terms were: Donna Lessard, president; Dorothy Dwyer, Vice-president; Florence Liemandt, secretary; Kay Hitchcock, treasurer.

"WE'RE PREPARED"

The North High Girl Scout Troup is the oldest troupe in this city. This February, Troup number 35 celebrated its Twenty-fifth Anniversary by having a Silver tea. At their meetings the girls learn metal and leather handicraft, together with needlework. The officers for the fall term were: Mary Dietrich, President; Betty Westerlund, Secretary-treasurer. The officers for the spring term were: Janice Barre, President; Gloria Johnson, Secretary-treasurer.

"STENO'S ALL"

The Commercial Club has just wound up another year of activity by presenting each of its graduating members a rose at a tea held in place of the last meeting. In the past year their meetings included talks by representatives of various business colleges, and a field trip to the Post Office, a quiz program and an amusing play, "The Perfect Secretary."

The club donated money to the Phyllis Wheatley fund. The fall officers were: Margaret Brown, president; Phyllis Woodhouse, vice president; Kathleen Wilder, secretary; Lorraine Gedig, treasurer. The Spring officers were: Kathleen Wilder, president; Beverley Roa, vice president; Carole Carlson, secretary; Gerraine Holcombe, treasurer.

"OUR ANALYZING ALCHEMISTS"

The Junior Academy of Science was just organized at North this year. It is the junior branch of the nationally known senior Academy of Science. The members, who must maintain a high "B" average to be eligible are biology, botany, physics, and chemistry students interested in broadening their scientific knowledge through extra curricular experiments. Each member works on a project in which he is interested. All projects are of practical as well as academic value.

The officers were: David De Wahl, president; Sam Zinberg, vice president Shirley Zimmerman, secretary; and Lorraine Anderson, treasurer.

"DO YE EVEN SO"

In the fall of 1940, the Common Ground Group was organized to establish and to promote a more harmonious relationship and a broader understanding among all nationalities. They attended mass at the Basilica of St. Mary, and services at Beth El Synagogue.

The members held a thanksgiving party at the home of one of its members, and a Christmas Chanukah at the Phi Epsilon Pi house on the University Campus.

Miss Dorothea Fetcek of the Y.W.C.A. is group adviser and Shirley Ann Zimmerman is the chairman.

"ALL NATURE IS BUT ART"

All botany and biology students are eligible to join the Nature Club. The club's purpose is to promote a better understanding and a keener interest in nature. At their monthly meetings, outside speakers presented lectures. The members have a two-fold program embracing a study of both plant and animal life.

The officers for the fall term were: Bernard Bernstein, president; Shirly Shinder, vice president; Marilyn Witte, secretary; Marion Macht, treasurer. The officers for the spring term were: Marilyn Witte, president; Kent Davis, vice president; Florence Johnson, secretary; Doris Sanko, treasurer.

"WE'RE UP AND ATOM"

The Science Club, by demonstrations and speakers, has endeavored to create a deeper interest in science among the students. They make field trips to the Ford Plant, Dairy, Telephone Company, and Broadcasting stations. Meetings are held every other Wednesday. Their adviser is Mr. Santee. The officers for the fall term were: Zane Isreal, president; Ingrid Frisell, vice president; Esther Zeesman, secretary; Jerome Schein, Sarg.-at-arms. The officers for the spring term were: San Hardin, president; Zane Isreal, vice president; Shirley Kanter, secretary; Jerome Schein, Sarg.-at-arms.

"W9TDE CALLING"

The Radio Club has been one of the most active clubs of the school this year. Its members have rebuilt and modernized the school's transmitter and have put up two new antenna masts for better transmission and reception. At the meetings the club has invited many speakers who have given lectures and demonstrated different phases of radio. Also the club has gone on numerous field trips.

Gordon Nordstrom was president for both terms.

"REEL WORKERS"

One of North High's service clubs is the Projection Club. Its activities include operating movie projectors, the public address system, and furnishing radios and phonographs for the classes that want them. The fall officers were: Robert Nyquist, president; Donald Johnston, vice president; Paul Serber, secretary. The spring officers are: Robert Nyquist, president; Donald Tang, vice president; Paul Serber, secretary.

PAINTIN' POLARS

The Polar Palettes is a small group of students interested in art who meet every Thursday to develop their ability and gain a knowledge of the different types of art. At their meetings the students did art work, obtained interesting outside speakers, and held exhibits of the various types of art.

To be a member of this group one must be a past or present art student. Last fall the members made model houses which were exhibited at the M.E.A. convention in October.

Polar Palettes. Row One: K. Gleason, G. Sakol, Mrs. Frazier, M. Fisher, M. St. John. Row Two: E. Resin, A. Feener, R. Runnerstrom, G. Riley, Row Three: M. Weiss, I. Moy, D. Gold, C. Kranz, V. Biorn. Row Four: D. Sanko, L. Swenson, D. Fraser, M. Maclellan, V. Gobel.

STOP, LOOK, AND LISTEN!

The Auto Safety Club was organized this last term in order to promote auto safety, and to teach high school drivers the fundamentals of better driving. Movies and lectures on automobile safety demonstrated these points to the club. Demonstrations were also presented to explain the importance of having the vehicle in perfect mechanical condition.

The officers for the term were: Douglas Hainlin, President; William Robin, Secretary; Doris Sanko and Donald Burgess are co-treasurers. Jerry Heltemes was responsible for the club's organization.

Auto-Safety Club. R. two J. O'Neil, M. Thickins, J. Kostner, C. Ferrigin, Q. Hansrude, E. Boe. R. two: H. Connor, F. Fingerhut, D. Sanko, A. Peterson, C. Knudsen. R. three: R. Gen-eley, C. Mansur, J. SHUTTER SNAPPERS

The Camera Club meets every Wednesday. Each member is taught how to develop, print, and enlarge films. This last year they acquired a new enlarger and cut film tank.

The officers for this last year were: Robert Nyquist, President; Walter Hanson, Vice-President; Laura Mound, Secretary; Elvy Edin, Treasurer.

"WE'RE FLY'IN HIGH"

Amid bracings, wires, hammers, and nails the Aviation Club constructed a full size glider. They raised the month to buy the materials for their flying machine and worked after school on it two nights each week. Later this year they hope to launch their glider on her maiden flight.

Officers for the year were: Eugene Marks, president, and Danny Stimler, vice president.

PHILATELIC ENTHUSIASTS

Last fall a new club was formed for those interested in philately, the Stamp Club. The members met every week to discuss and trade stamps. During the course of the fall semester the members conducted a stamp auction and sponsored stamp exhibitions in the display case. During the spring semester the club was temporarily disbanded because of the small membership; however, Mr. Freedman, the sponsor, hopes to reorganize the club next semester. The officers were: Ralph Lessin, president; Duane Foss, secretary; and Stanley Mandel, treasurer.

"STALEMATE!"

The Chess Club plays in the Minneapolis High School tournament. These games are played at the Minneapolis Chess-Checker Club every Saturday during the basketball season. Before the tournament begins the team plays several practice games with other schools. The members compete with each other at the regular meetings. The officers this term are: Ralph Estren, president; Irvin Goldberg, vice president; Max Guttman, secretary-treasurer.

SERVICE

OUR COOKIES

Our lunchroom staff is the group of girls who have mastered the fundamentals of cooking in North's regular S1 and S2 classes. In this commercial cooking class the girls learn how to make bread, decorate salads and prepare food appetizingly. The students may serve food in the cafeteria act as cashiers, prepare and serve teas, and learn the principals of quantity cooking. Mrs. Frances Clausen is the instructor.

HANDY ANDYS

The Stage Crew under the direction of Mr. Harold Gregory executes all stage craft in connection with the auditorium programs, graduation, class plays, Spring Revues, Operetta, and P.T.A. programs. They put out risers for events here at North and fix the Xmas trees in the front hall. All in all they are the "Handy Andys" of North. Stanley Blagrove was the student manager.

The Bank Cashiers have certainly done their part this year to increase the number of North's bankers. This year Miss Clara Nelson's room consistently held first honors. It not only acquired a perfect banking record eight times but also maintained an average well over ninety per cent. In fact because this room was a select group (the Polaris Weekly Staff) it was finally barred from receiving the banner, so that the rest of the rooms might discover how the pennant looked. The home rooms of Miss Kref-ting, Mr. Jensen, Miss Robinson, Mr. Friedman, and Miss Sims' also upheld their banking averages for dear old Alma Mater.

REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY

The Student Council has made long strides toward student self-government at North. The Council, composed of a representative from each of North's seventy-five homerooms, is the student body's voice in the administration. This organization gives students practice in democracy.

The Council initiated a new system of parking for the students. The new plan did much to alleviate the traffic conditions before and after school. Under this system each driver secured a parking permit which was signed by the school authorities and the resident in front of whose house the student wished to park. All cars were to be parked at least two blocks from the school.

Together with the Honor Society, the Council launched a clean-up campaign. The project was successful as there was a marked degree of improvement about the halls and in the class rooms. The Council also sponsored a courtesy campaign. Posters were placed on the bulletin boards in the halls to promote these ideas.

The officers for the fall term were: John Watten, president; Brian Cleworth, vice president; Lois Larson, secretary and Lorraine Gorham, treasurer. Larry Gruman was elected sergeant-at-arms but he was out of school for the duration of the term. The officers for the spring term were: Robert Maas, president; Brian Cleworth, vice president; Marion Roa, secretary; Adell Harding, treasurer and Paul England, sergeant-at-arms.

Annual Art Staff. J. Carlson, D. Sanko, M. Thickens, V. Biorn.

"IT'S OFF TO PRESS!"

Do you think you'll make the deadline? How many pages left to paste? Isn't that article typed yet? These would have been some of the overtones detectable had you been the proverbial little mouse in the Polaris Annual room this past year.

We hope that the astronomical theme and the colorful middle section of the book will add to your enjoyment in the coming years.

Gerraine Holcombe was Editor-in-Chief and Robert Kenning was business manager. The editors of the other sections were: Vivian Newstrom, Bessie Center, Evelyn Flitte, Lorraine Hendrickson, Rae Molde, Sam Davis, Ruth Johnson, and Martha Gallion.

STAR MAKERS

The art staff started its work on this annual way back in September. They worked on layouts and plans which were submitted to the Annual Staff for approval. The North Star Theme was developed through block prints and ink drawing.

The staff is under the supervision of Miss Jane Thickens. The art editor is Doris Sanko. The rest of the staff include June Carlson, Carol Simpson, Virginia Biorn, Arlon Craig, Wilma Fuller, and Burton Charles. Others from the fine arts S5 and S6 classes helped also when it was called for.

Annual Staff. R. One: S. Davis, E. Flitte, B. Center, L. Hendrickson, M. Marselle, V. Newstrom, M. Quady. R. Two: D. Sanko, G. Holcombe, M. Gallion, R. Kenning, Miss R. Normann, R. Molde, R. Johnson, M. Johnson, M. Rachac, D. Nelson, M. Wilson, S. Hall and C. Carlson joined the staff in the spring semester.

"...AND IN CONCLUSION"

Pictured above is the North High School Debate squad of the 1941 spring term. Members of the squad were selected to participate in a debate held in the school auditorium on January 31, debate tournament sponsored by Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter on February 7 and 8, and in the city wide debate finals at West High School during the week beginning February 17.

The Debate coaches are Mrs. Della Linsten and Mr. Kopple Friedman.

NOT A DEADLINE MISSED

The Polaris is the only high school paper in the country which is edited, printed, and made up by the same staff. It is the only high school paper in the Northwest printed by the off set process of lithography.

It is ten pages full of school news. It has a comic strip and cartoons by able artists, two sport pages with lots of pictures, and special features by North Newscasters.

Angeline Bogucki was editor-in-chief for the fall term and Harry Schuman for the spring term. Miss Clara Nelson was publication advisor.

"OUR 100 PERCENTERS"

The Polaris Weekly Salesmen did an excellent job of paper selling this last year. The salesmen who had sold a Polaris to every member in their homeroom received a one dollar bill as an award for their good work. The following people received the awards for both terms: Betty Reiners, Marvin Verstagin, Clayton Johnson, Jean Flanders, Donna Offerman, Muriel Tollefson.

These received the award for the fall term: Eddie Kantor, Ervin

Mattison, Esler Frier, Jean Olson, Ruth Martinson, Eileen Weston, Helen Stenborg, Ruth Koontz, Elsie Mattison, Thomas Jennings, Adora Nordlander. These received the award for the spring term: Bernice Palmquist, Richard Hein, Carol Anderson, Shirley Heidelberg, Helen Peterson, Isadora Wittels, Marjorie Hey, Betty Lou Roemer, Shirley Saroon, Dorothy Schwartz, Shirlee Gutkin, John Bahnmann, Francis Fingerhut, Helen Pederson, and Helen Burnstein.

"SPRECHEN SIE DEUTSCH?"

The North High German Club, or "Deutscher Verein", presents interesting programs monthly, which help its members practice hearing and speaking German. Highlights of the German Club's activities include the Annual Declamatory Contest and editing of the German paper, "Unter Uns", each term.

The officers for this year were: Anita Bredow, president; Robert Bris, vice president, Aloysious Vetcher, sergeant at arms; the secretary for the fall was Virginia Winger, and for the spring, Phyllis Eisten.

"LATINE DISCIPULI"

In the fall term, the Latin Club made a study of the Roman schools and homes. They began the spring term with talks and colored slides on Caesar's expeditions in Gaul.

The officers for the fall term were: Ruth Koontz, president; Keller Nyquist, vice president; and Grace Larsen, secretary-treasurer. The officers for the spring term were: Ruth Koontz, president; Ben Brzenski, vice president; and Lorraine Mustenin, secretary-treasurer.

VIVE LA FRANCE

The French Club livened the interest of its members and enlarged its attendance by conducting a membership contest. Francis Lowe and Bert Schwartz were elected captains of this enterprize. At their meetings they discussed French holidays and sang and played French songs and games.

The officers for the fall term were: Delores Berdt, president; Marquerite Rash, vice president; Margaret Marcelle, secretary-treasurer. The spring officers were: Verna Caron, president; Riva Kinitz, vice president; Gloria Werner, Secretary-treasurer.

"ADELANTE SUMPRE ADELANTE"

La Tertulla is North's Spanish Club. Its motto means "Onward, always onward." The meetings are held the last Tuesday of every month. At these meetings they have Spanish plays and games. Miss Apel is the club adviser. The officers for the fall term were: Helen Stenborg, president; Carol Sanderson, vice president; Mary Caulton, secretary; Charles Hamilton, treasurer. The officers for the spring term were: James Kissell, president; Joyce Brose, vice president; Jean Johnson, secretary; Ruth Runnerstrom, treasurer.

LIKA BARN LIKA BÄST

The Iduna Club meets to provide a background for the study of the Swedish language. This term scrapbooks were made which contained interesting facts and customs of the various parts of Sweden. The fall officers were: Ingrid Frisell, president; Jeanette Schwappach, vice president; Alpha Gustafson, Secretary; Marion Bodell, treasurer.

"FRIHET, SANNHET, OG KJAERLIGHET"

All students who have taken Norse are eligible for membership in the Vikingclub. The purpose of this club is to study the music, literature, and arts of Norway.

The club has been very fortunate in getting outside speakers. This year Bjorn Fjelle, and Stephania Bjornason, who came from Norway and Iceland respectively, were two of the many interesting outside speakers. Social meetings at the homes of members of the club are also part of activities. The president for the fall term was Evelyn Flittee, and for the spring term George Olson.

INTERMEZZO

M U S I C

The Orchestra is an organization of which North can justly be proud. This group is frequently called upon for performances and accompaniments. For this reason the Orchestra could be correctly classed as a service group. They not only played for the fall and spring class plays but also for the Baccalaureate services and Commencement exercises.

The Orchestra visited certain schools other than North this year, namely: Jordan, Lincoln, and Franklin Junior High Schools. In the spring they played accompaniment for the operetta, "Rio Rita," and also entered the district music contest.

Our school's interest in better music was shown by the appreciation they expressed of the auditorium programs which the orchestra presented.

Mr. Adolph Nervig, beloved by all the orchestra members, is the able director of this organization.

NORTH'S CLAIM TO FAME

North's Band is making rapid strides towards the high standards Mr. Cleary has set for them. Everyone is confident that with continued hard work the unbroken string of musical victories of the last three years will be continued. In addition to playing for athletic programs the Band was the official representative for the City of Minneapolis in the St. Paul Winter Carnival.

The Band may participate in the Paul Bunyan Carnival at Bemiji later in the year. They also plan to enter the National Music Contest in St. Paul in May.

The organization's popularity, both as a concert band and marching unit, has been increasing to such an extent that its services have been in greater demand than ever before by various civic committees and organizations.

An important addition to the band has been navy blue mackinaws with white trim. This makes the North High Band the most uniformly dressed band in the Northwest.

"SING AND REJOICE"

This year the North High Choir presented a delightful operetta entitled, "Rio Rita." The play, a romance of a Texas Ranger and a beautiful Mexican girl, was the first operetta in which the choir has ever appeared as a unit. Alberta Geedman in the title role and Howard Viken portraying Jim sang the leading parts. In the supporting cast were Irving Fink as Chick, Joy Ann Gifford as Carmen, Donald Telzman as General Estaban, and Hymie Sandler as Ed Lovett. Rita Fuhrman, Kenneth Johnson, Richard Dols, Tom Olson, Alyce Hartlage, and Manuel Martinez also had parts in the production. Aside from producing the operetta, the choir sang for many of our own auditoriums programs, including the National Honor Society induction. They occasionally filled outside engagements also. A spring festival which included the choir, together with the band and orchestra, was one of the spring activities. The choir concluded their year of activity by singing at the Baccalaureate Services.

The Glee Club of North High was dissolved last fall and a new organization called the North High singers, directed by Mr. Roy T. Tenney, took its place. This is a small group of selected singers studying voice culture. They meet four days each week of which two days are devoted to individual help. The remaining two days are devoted to group singing.

The highlites of the year were a radio broadcast and an auditorium program May sixteenth. It is intended as the group progresses that it shall lead community singing at football, basketball games, and Pep meetings and other programs in the auditorium. Mr. Tenney is confident that this group will have a successful future.

"About the only time I get to use my bicycle is when I go out after school with the other girls for G. A. A.," says Jean Olson.

Few girls have bicycles by the time they reach high school so they are glad to have the chance to meet someone who has one they use.

"I like to hike, so I am glad to meet others who will hike with me," Marlys DeMarais said.

The girls who come out for Hiking can go anywhere they desire. There must be several who wish to go at a time. At least one hour must be spent each evening.

"I learned how to play golf after school without the expense many people go through to learn the game," said Rae Molde.

Before anyone can come out for golf, she must have at least four clubs, the amount needed to play on any course. One is taught how to handle the different clubs, their names, and when to use them. After all this is taught by one of the gym teachers, a test, made by the girl in charge, is given.

"I sure appreciate a chance to go swimming with someone that can teach me something that I do not know about swimming," says La Vaun Powers.

There is no special night set aside for Swimming after school, but rather any night the girls can go. This makes it easier for the girl who can not come on special nights of the week.

Diamondball. Row One: M. DeMarais, R. Ganley, J. Nallick, M. Savitt, Row Two: M. Lofgren, J. Powers, J. Olson, A. Lopicka. Row Three: S. Goldstein, E. Schlo-ners, E. Cahill, P. Dill. Row Four: J. Lorentzen, J. Kronstedt, C. Leader, I. Chesebro.

"I like diamondball best because many persons can participate even though they may not have much playing ability. Also it is a game not hard to learn," replied Joyce Kronstadt.

The sport that most girls go out for is Diamondball. Teams are formed and names chosen. Anyone can play Diamondball, don't forget the after school classes are to teach those who do not know, how to play.

Diamondball. Row One: D. Rust, J. Lathrop, M. Kowalezyh. Row Two: G. Grey, S. Saffrin, C. Robin. Row Three: M. Sutherland, Lopicka, G. Condoluci. Row Four: P. Carlson, R. Ganley, L. Pile. Row Five: M. Bolstad, M. Hagen, S. Burk. Row Six: J. Lorentzen, C. Burk, E. Rohling.

Tennis. Row One: M. Lofgren, E. Edin, B. Shugg. Row Two: L. Tornell, A. Rinker, L. Mound.

"Tennis is one game that people play after they leave school," says Elvy Edin.

Tennis after school is no different from any other game of tennis. The girls must furnish their own tennis racket and also their own balls. They play in the courts on the sides of Hobbs field.

The one thing that every girl strives for in G.A.A. is an Emblem. It is the highest honor a girl can receive in high school sports. It takes 1000 points to earn one. An "N" takes 600 points. Out of the 600, at least 200 must be earned in individual sports.

N

G. A. A. SPEAKS:

SOPHOMORE..

Benefits derived from the G. A. A. are many and can be obtained by all girls. Playing games makes one energetic and alert. What may be more important, in G. A. A. a girl may make friendships which will last throughout her entire life.

The first sport I entered was badminton. I didn't know how to play, but the other girls taught me. The gymnastic instructor taught us the fundamentals of bowling, that popular new sport.

As the year went by, the spirit of the girls became keener, rather than more lax.

As one girl to another, I wouldn't miss the opportunity of entering the organization and taking part in its activities.

--Carol Robin

JUNIOR..

When I first came to North in 10 B, girls from the G.A.A. Board came into my gym class and spoke on G. A. A. Having always been interested in sports, I decided to earn points for a letter. I have taken part in every sport that has been offered, but my favorite of them all is badminton. I think this is because I get a personal satisfaction out of playing it. There is no team behind me to back me up as there is in basketball. With badminton, I'm on my own.

I have never been sorry that I took G. A. A. and I do not think that any other girl at North would be either. There is a certain thrill of pride that comes when you wear your letter because it stands for so much.

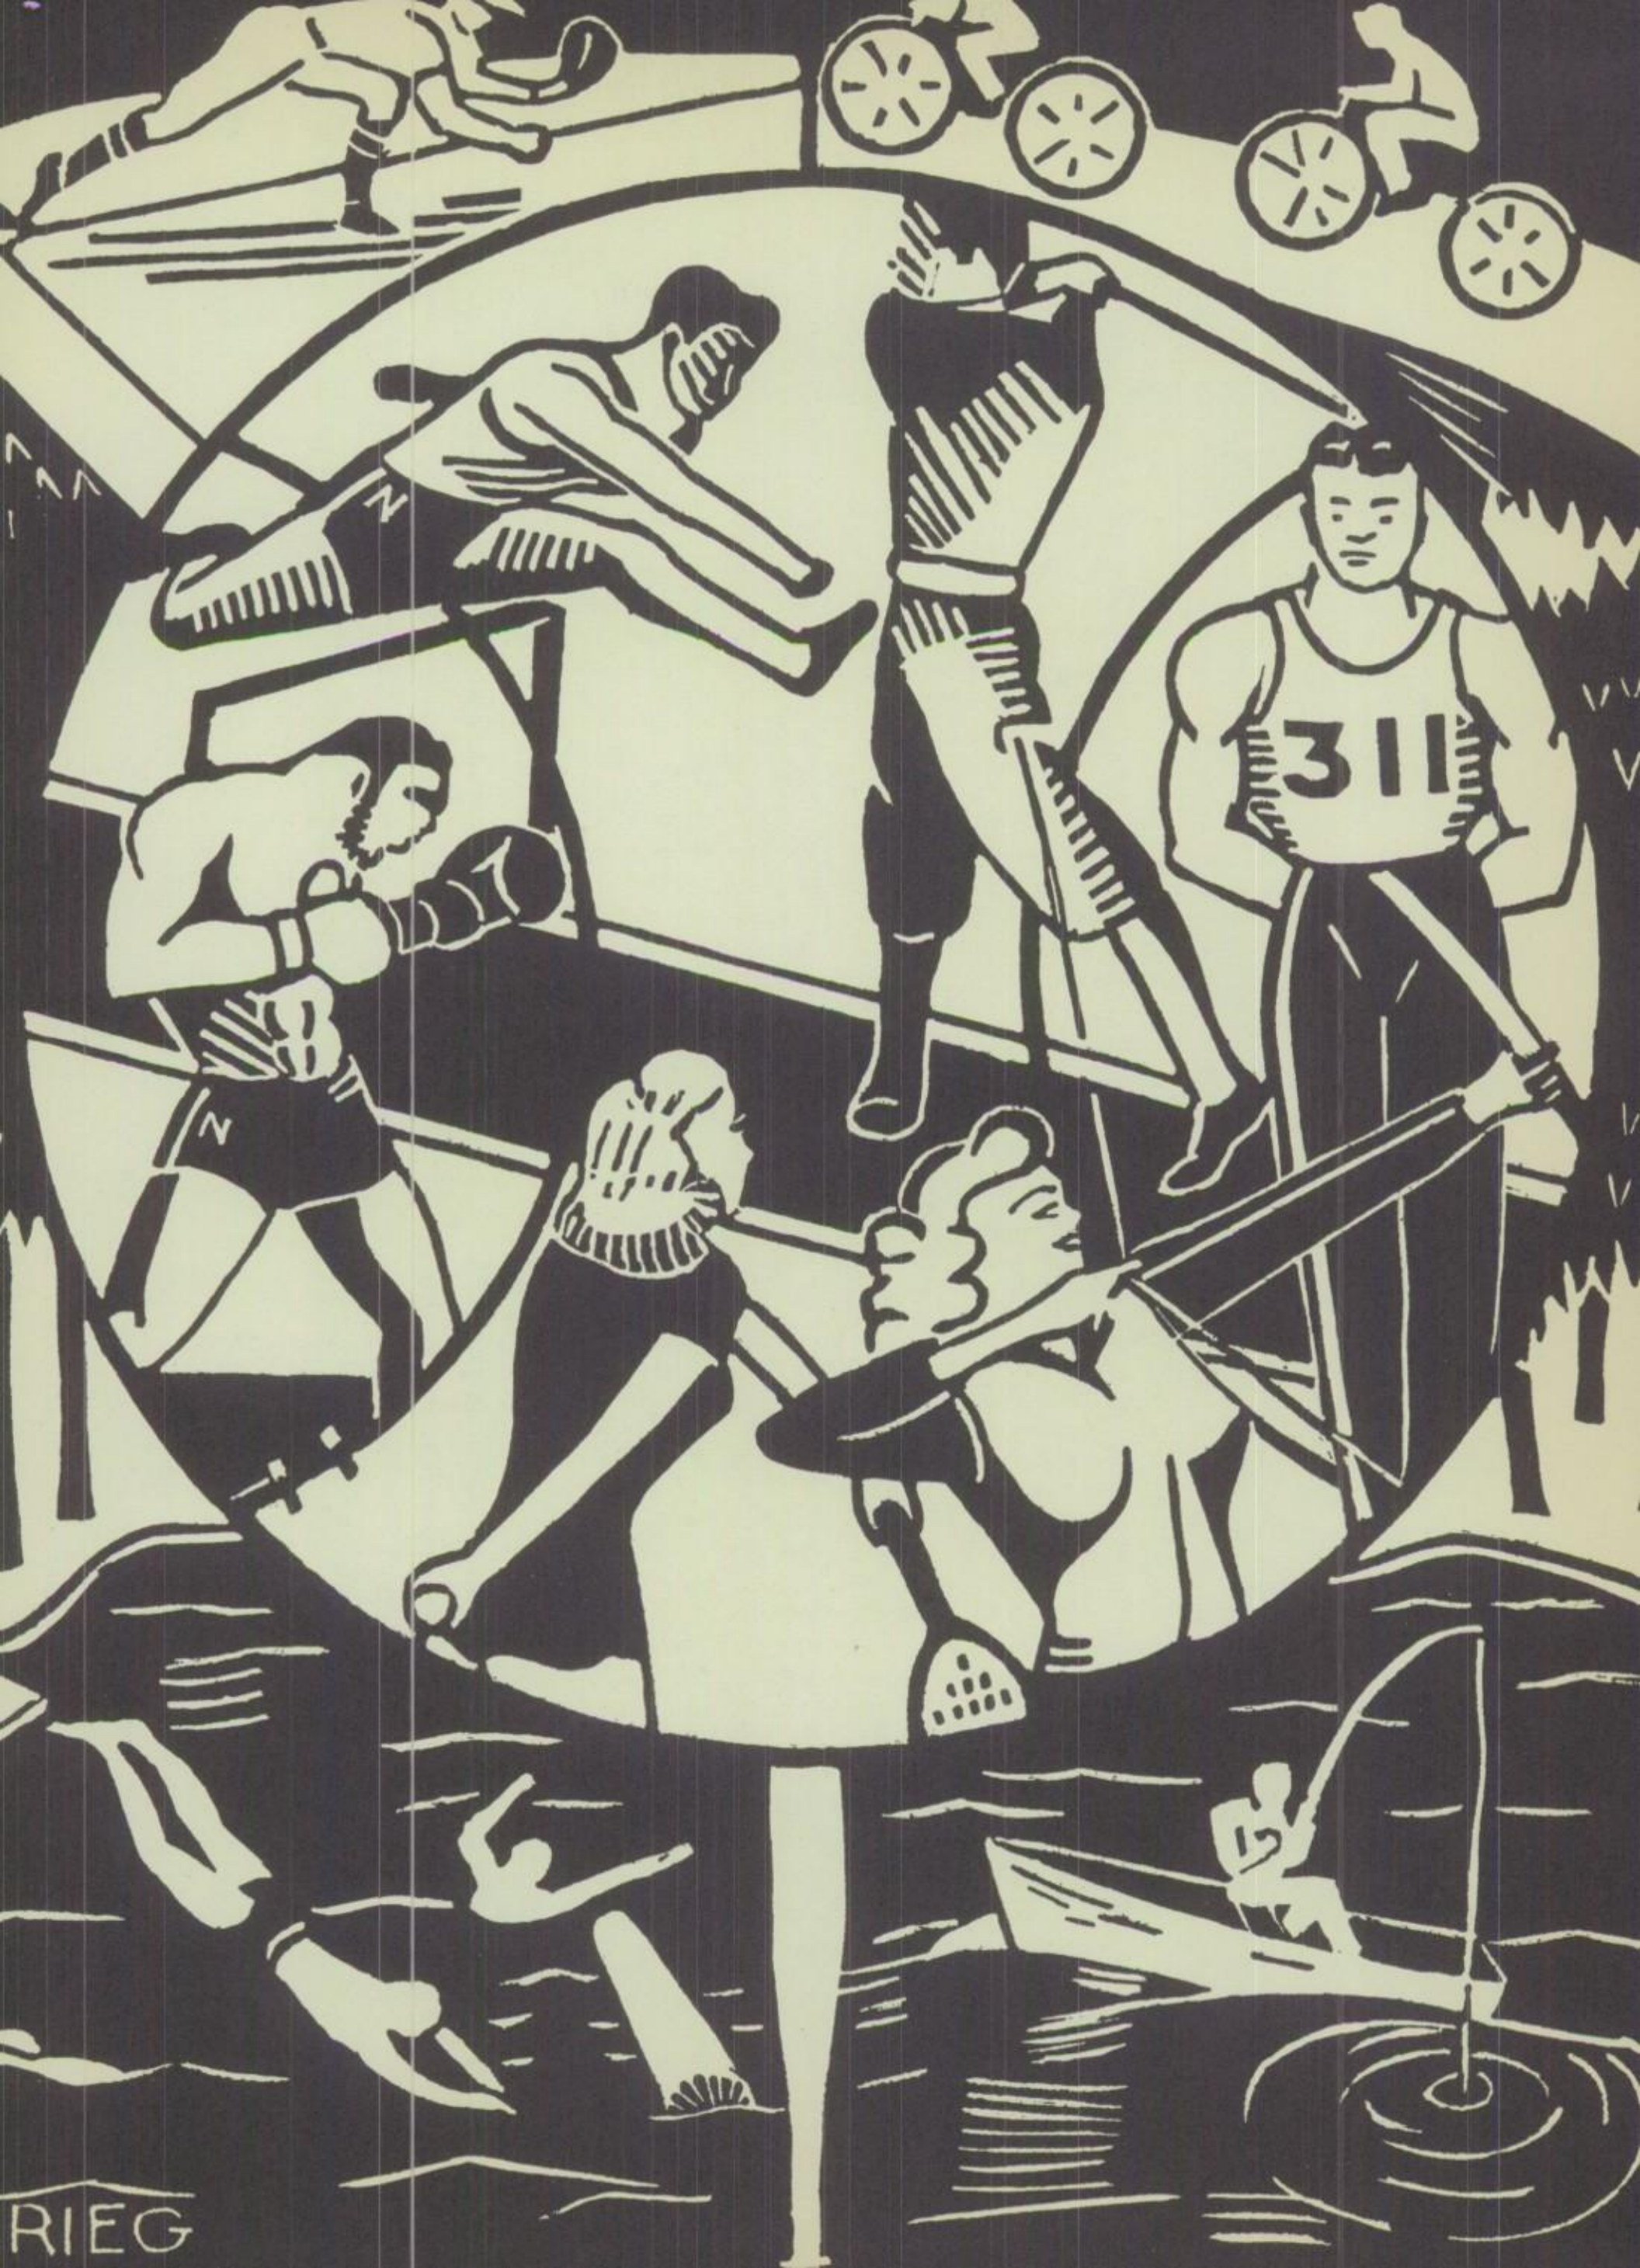

--Jean Lathrop

SENIOR..

Upon learning that an "N" and an emblem could be earned in G. A. A., I was even more enthused than formerly about joining the organization. Then I heard how many points were required for each. My heart sank, but I was determined to get all the points I could. After getting started, my points mounted higher and higher and I soon had the required number for an "N".

As my interest increased, I supervised some of the sports. I encouraged several girls to join and they have many times expressed their appreciation to me. Above all, I like G. A. A. because of the many, many friends I have made while playing.

--Gloria Condoluci

Once again a North High team has come through in championship style. The Polar men of baseball proved to be the conquering heroes copping the city prep baseball championship, and winding up a successful season. Under the expert coaching of Tom Kennedy the team chalked up the impressive record of 20 victories out of 24 games.

Entering the Carlton meet with an average of 1,000% they walked off with the class L Championship for large citles. This title amounts to the same as the State Championship. This is the second successive time that the team has won this honor.

The high spirited polarpelters inaugurated the season with an impressive 4 to 2 win over West, and then went on to gain a season total of 65 points to the opponents 28. Averaging 7.33 runs and 15 hits per game for the season the team was paced by Lefty Erickson with a .520 batting average. The sterling Perry-Lehrman combination backed by the three Ericksons made the Polars invincible.

"Its right across the old plate."
The sparkplug of the Polar Diamondmen is hurler Clarence Harrer. The pitching staff consisted of many fine ball tossers, but "Clar" was one of the best.

Skimming over the high hurdles is track captain George Bales. It was the smooth form of this fleet foot that enabled the Polar men to come through the season in a very successful style.

TRACK

Coach "Louie" can be seen giving the boys some advice during pre-season practice. The crowd toward the right gives proof that "Lou" really has a magnetic personality.

Starting the season by scoring 22 points in the Metropolitan Meet, North High's track team experienced one of its best seasons under Coach Louis Burnett.

Led by handy-man George Bales, the squad went on to victories over Vocational and Patrick Henry and were narrowly defeated by Roosevelt and Edison.

Cal Jacobs, state broadjumping champion, broke the broadjumping record in almost every meet that he entered. The mighty mite was also a star in the dashes.

Don Aho was a fine running mate for Captain Bales at the hurdles. Don succeeded in placing against some of the state's finest.

Though not state champions, Bob Johnson, Ralph Ferrin, Richard Sandblade, and James Forceia were welcome additions to the squad.

The team wound up in a burst of glory, garnering 9 points in the State Meet.

Winging his way along is this year's top prospect, fleet foot Cal Jacobs. Cal the pride of the cinderman can be seen above broad jumping and to the right practicing his now famous sprint.

GOLF

Under the expert first year coaching of Carl Larson, the linkmen of North carried on the school tradition for fighting teams.

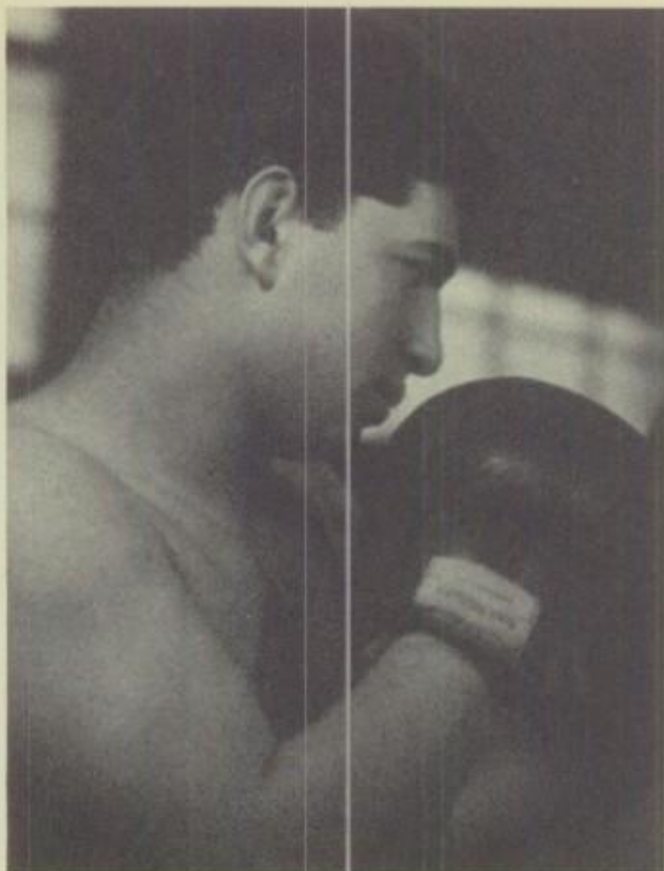

Winning six out of nine tournaments the team was well stocked by the individual starring of Schlöner, Young, and Linblom.

Row One: R. Rubin, R. Biorn, R. Demcke,
Row Two: J. Young, D. Lindblom, I. Schlöner, D. Juntilla. Row Three: R. Kahler, C. Gellerman, Coach Larson, R. Olson, H. Kost.

TENNIS

Enjoying its most successful season in years, the North High Tennis team of 1940 wound up the summer's campaign in fourth place. The squad, under Coach Arthur Lindman won four matches, conquering Marshall, Edison, Washburn, and Vocational, and dropped the same number, losing to West, Central, South, and Roosevelt, for a 500 percent average.

Row One: M. Christianson, W. Gilson, S. Rickter. Row Two: E. Levinson, J. Friedman. Row Three: H. Shragowitz, Mr. Lindman, J. Schwartz.

"Getz" Rosenbloom

When the final bell had rung, there emerged into the limelight seven newly crowned champions. Out of all pugilistic minded polar fisticusses, these fortunate few remained. Coached by headpugs Williams and Collins these boys worked patiently night after night on the well-known theory that it is better to give than receive.

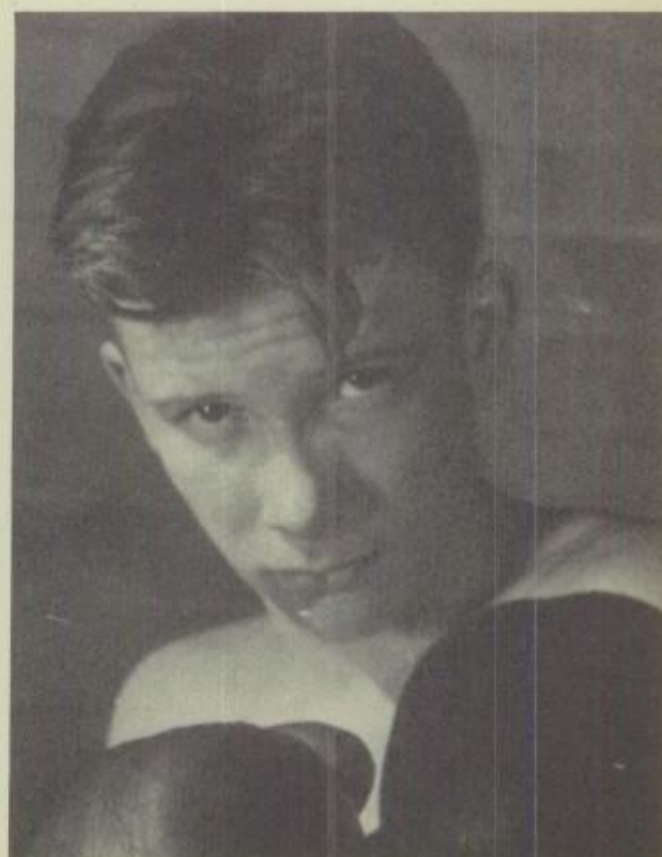

Walking out of the ring under their own locomotion to be crowned champs were:

Heavyweight:	R. Juster
Light Heavy:	W. Gleason
Middleweight:	C. Johnson
Welterweight:	D. Olsen
Featherweight:	B. Dougherty
Lightweight:	H. Davis
Bantamweight:	R. Hynes
Flyweight:	D. Riemer
Paperweight:	B. Velasco
